Business Dining Etiquette

The first part of the Seminar will give you advices on the most important table manners in Germany, having as an expert the competent counseling of the professional Etiquette Trainer, Ms. Karin H. Schleines.

You will learn with the seminar the ground rules of Dining Etiquette in a professional German Business context. The practical training session will directly give you the opportunity to use your theoretical knowledge in a restaurant with our trainer.

During the Dining Seminar you will get:

- Information about basic rules & customs of Dining Etiquette in a German Business context
- Information about the meaning of business dinners, including the topic of “compliance”
- Insights into seating arrangements & table settings (including the variety of glasses, plates...)
- Advices on how to behave with a menu with several courses (including how to eat "difficult" dishes)
- Information about small talk at a restaurant table

Never feel awkward Again!
