Programme description
The DAAD programme PROMOS supports language courses and specialised courses of students and PhD students at universities worldwide. Congress attendance cannot be supported.

Application requirements
The applicants
- have to be enrolled at TUK
- have the German citizenship
- or are equivalent ("Bildungsinländer", entitled to BAföG)
- are non-German students who are enrolled in a degree programme at TUK with the ambition to finish their studies
- have to prove at least 25 cp per semester
- shall be at least in 3. semester of bachelor degree programme

If the student is receiving other scholarships, in many cases it is not possible to get a PROMOS scholarship. PhD students can only be supported if applications for other scholarships have been rejected (proof required) and if they do not derive income.

Scholarship duration and criteria
Language courses of at least 25 hours weekly can be supported from 3 weeks to six months. Eligible are courses at public and private universities and at established language institutes. Specialised courses can be supported for up to six weeks.
Scholarship rate
Successful applicants will receive a one-time payment of 500.00 €.

Application documents
To apply you need to hand in the following documents:

- Motivation letter on 2-3 pages
- CV in table form
- Current transcript of records (including failed examinations)
- Copy of certificates from university or copy of diploma from school qualifying for studies at a university
- If the certificate is not from TUK: certification of grade compared to other graduates
- Letter of recommendation from a professor (draft under „application documents“)
- Proof of initiation of the stay abroad (e.g. confirmation of registration for a language course)
